

Music Festivals of the 'Great Sea'

Soak up the sun, dance music and DJ/club culture across the most beautiful coastal destinations at the Med's best music festivals! Check out our fave heavenly (or hedonistic) havens and tunes from the region.

MAY-SEPTEMBER

Why go? The nostalgic essence of this town is the number one reason. Change has not come quickly, and what has been will always be. Brigitte Bardot, Liz Taylor...the glamour, purity and transport to another era are reason enough to go. The music is the bubble in the champagne!

ST. TROPEZ

JUNE-SEPTEMBER

Early adopters, anyone?

The Croatian festival circuit is the least-known, fastest growing music venue. Get on it if you want to say you knew it way-back-when. It won't be a secret for long.

HVAR

PORTOFINO

MYKONOS

IBIZIA

MAY-SEPTEMBER

Love music? This is your jam. The best DJ's from around the globe flock here, and you'll find a watch to be irrelevant. Ibiza is a living dream set to a soundtrack that never stops.

Go: Now.

JULY-AUGUST

Why not go? The food, the beautiful women, the ultimate in 5-star service - this little Italian town starts with some of the best things in life, and just continues with the cool beats that make it so unforgettable.

JULY-AUGUST

Got family? This is one place where you won't mind if your kids, cousins, nieces or little sisters come with you. Life exists outside here - in fresh, open air - and the street life is friendly and continuous. It may be 3am but the life of the party gently rolls on into breakfast...without you hardly noticing.
